A registration permit application shall be submitted to the city administrator on forms furnished by the city and must contain all information contained thereon, including the following:

The new owner must obtain a new registration permit within 30 days of acquiring the property if continuing to operate a rental dwelling unit thereon. If any changes occur in any information required on the registration application, the owner must submit an amended registration application to the city within 30 days of the change. inspection. Each occupant of a rental dwelling unit shall give the owner, or the owner's agent, access to any part of such rental dwelling unit at reasonable times for the purpose of effecting the inspection, maintenance, repairs or alterations as are necessary to comply with the provisions of this article. If any owner, owner's agent or tenant of a rental dwelling unit fails or refuses to permit entry to the rental dwelling unit under his/her control for an inspection pursuant to this article, the city may obtain an administrative warrant authorizing such inspection. Any city costs associated with obtaining a search warrant will be charged against the property being served. Upon inspection, the proposed rental property shall adhere to the following:

If re-inspections are necessary to determine compliance, the applicant shall pay a re-inspection fee, as adopted by the city council.

Sec. 12-258. - Issuance of Permit.

The City shall issue a registration permit if the rental dwelling unit(s) and the application are found to be in compliance with the provisions of this article and all required registration and inspection fees are paid. Rental registrations shall be conspicuously posted in all rental properties sharing a common entrance used by two or more rental dwelling units and the owner or agent for the owner must be able to present the registration permit if asked to do so.

Sec. 12-259. – Inspections and Investigations in Response to Complaint.

Inspections related to new and renewed registration applications will occur in accordance with Sec. 12-257 upon the receipt of the required application for a registration permit. The city shall also have the right to make periodic inspections of rental dwelling units based on complaints of landlords, tenants, neighbors or other individuals, and may obtain an administrative search warrant should permission to enter a rental dwelling unit pursuant to this section be denied.

Sec. 12-260. – Revoking, Suspending, Denying or Not Renewing a Registration Permit.

buildings containing more than one rental dwelling unit, the revocation, suspension, denial or declination may apply to one or more rental dwelling units at the reasonable discretion of the city council. The basis for such revocation, suspension, denial or non-renewal may include, but shall not be limited to, any of the following circumstances:

- (1) The registration permit was procured by misrepresentation of material facts with regard to the rental dwelling unit or the ownership of the rental dwelling unit.
  - (2) The applicant or one acting in his/her behalf made oral or written misstatements accompanying the application.
  - (3) The applicant has failed to comply with any condition set forth in any other permits granted by the city.
  - (4) The activities of the owner create or have created a danger to the public health, safety or welfare.
  - (5) The rental dwelling unit contains conditions that might injure or endanger the safety, health or welfare of any member of the public.
  - (6) Failure to pay any application fee or reinstatement fee required by this article.
  - (7) Failure to correct any code violations in the time period specified in the notice of violation.
  - (8) Any violation of this article or any other state or local law related to the rental dwelling unit(s).

(c) Notification. The city shall notify the owner or the owner's agent in writing of the basis for a revocation, suspension, denial or non-renewal and the date upon which the city council will review a recommendation to revoke, suspend, deny, or not renew the registration permit. The notice required by this section shall be mailed to the owner or the owner's agent at least 10 days before the city council hearing. Service shall be deemed sufficient if the notice is sent to the owner or the owner's agent by first class mail at the address provided in the registration application.

- (d) Hearing. The owner or the owner's agent shall be given an opportunity to be heard during the city council hearing. The city council shall hear all relevant evidence and arguments and shall review all statements, documents, and other evidence submitted.
- (e) Decision. The city council shall make findings based on the evidence presented and shall make a decision on the recommendation to revoke, suspend, deny, or not renew a registration permit based on the findings. The city council shall issue a written decision within 30 days following the date of the hearing and shall notify the owner of the decision by first class mail. The decision shall specify the rental dwelling unit or units to which it applies. Thereafter, and until a registration permit is reissued or reinstated, no rental dwelling units that have had their rental registration permit revoked, suspended, denied, or non-renewed may be let or occupied by tenants. Revocation, suspension, denial, or non-renewal of a registration permit shall not excuse the owner from compliance with all terms of this article for as long as any rental dwelling units in the building are occupied.
- (f) Permit Process after Revocation, Suspension, Denial or Renewal Declination. After the city council revokes, suspends, denies or declines to renew a registration permit, no registration permit will be issued for the affected rental dwelling unit(s) until the city determines that the applicant/owner has remedied the conditions identified by the city council as the basis for its action. An application to obtain a registration permit for a rental dwelling unit after the city council has revoked, suspended, denied or declined to renew a registration permit for the same rental dwelling unit(s) must be accompanied by all fees required by this article.

Sec. 12-261. – Effect of Revocation, Suspension, Denial or Non-Renewal.

If a registration permit is revoked, suspended, denied or not renewed by the city council, it shall be unlawful for the owner or the owner's agent to thereafter permit the occupancy of the then vacant or, thereafter vacated, rental dwelling unit(s), until such time as a valid rental registration permit is obtained for the rental dwelling unit(s). Issuance of a new registration permit after revocation, suspension, denial or non-renewal shall be made in the manner provided for in this article.

Sec. 12-262. - Posted to Prevent Occupancy.

*7/10 UPDATED DRAFT LONG-TERM RENTAL ORDINANCE***

Whenever any rental dwelling unit has been denied an initial registration permit, had its registration permit revoked, suspended, denied or not renewed, it may be posted by the building official to prevent further occupancy. No person other than the building official shall remove or alter any posting. The building official may post the date the rental dwelling unit shall be vacated, and no person other than the owner shall reside in, occupy or cause to be occupied that rental dwelling unit.

Sec. 12-263. – Penalties.

Any person who violates any of the provisions of this article shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined or jailed not more than the maximum penalty for a misdemeanor prescribed under state law. The building official may post the rental dwelling unit by appropriate signs or notices prohibiting occupancy and may act to cause the rental dwelling unit to be vacated or remain vacant until the code violations are corrected.

Sec. 12-264. – No Warranty by City.

By enacting and undertaking to enforce this code, the city, city council, its agents, and/or employees do not warrant or guaranty the safety, fitness or suitability of any dwelling in the city. Owners and tenants should take whatever steps they deem appropriate to protect their interests, health, safety and welfare.
